

TAMÁSTLIKT

CULTURAL INSTITUTE

72789 Highway 331, Pendleton, OR 97801 USA

Tamástlikt Cultural Institute Nov/Dec Events

November is American Indian Heritage Month at Tamástlikt Cultural Institute

Nov. 1-30 - PENDLETON Oregon 9 Tribes Historical Exhibit

Experience Tamástlikt Cultural Institute & Oregon Historical Society traveling exhibit entitled Oregon is Indian Country provides text and historical and contemporary photographs about the nine Federally Recognized Tribes in Oregon. Topics include: The Land, Federal Indian Policies, and Traditions that Bind. 541-966-9748 - tamastlikt.org

Nov. 1 – PENDLETON Reservation Road Show

Professional collectors and curators at Tamástlikt Cultural Institute will offer collectors and Tribal members a chance to have artifacts valued and examined for potential hazardous pesticides. Professional conservators provide advice on the best methods of preserving family heirlooms such as regalia items, beadwork and basketry. 541-966-9748 tamastlikt.org

Nov. 8 – PENDLETON Genealogy Workshop with Virginia Roberts

Hands on workshop teaching you how to find and use the latest online tools and resources to discover your family genealogy. Featuring research librarian, Virginia Roberts. 541-966-9748 - tamastlikt.org

Nov. 11 – PENDLETON Veteran's Day celebration:

Free admission to the Tamástlikt Cultural Institute for veterans, and a free community showing of the film “Way of the Warrior” at 4 pm. 541-966-9748 - tamastlikt.org