

DARRYL RHOADES

COMEDIAN

Darryl Rhoades is an entertainer with a history. In 1975 he formed the now legendary comedy-music troupe, The Hahavishnu Orchestra, performing all over the United States and Canada. His material earned rave reviews from the likes of Playboy, The Village Voice, and Performance Magazine prompting Rolling Stone/MTV critic Kurt Loder to proclaim him...."one of the most savagely gifted writer-performers in the country today".

Darryl's released eight comedy/music albums featuring performances from members of The Georgia Satellites, Winger, The Producers, Jellyfish, The Dregs, the Delbert McClinton Band, the Peabo Bryson Band, and Atlanta Rhythm Section. His songs have been featured on the national and regionally syndicated radio shows John Boy & Billy and Dr. Demento. His compositions have been recorded by several other artist and have been featured in such movies as the 1989 Jim Varney release Fastfood and the Sex Pistols Rock-umentary...D.O.A.

Darryl's stage performance can be best described as original & highly energetic, using multiple personalities, rapid fire delivery, and satirical music.

TV APPEARANCES

NIGHTSHIFT (FOX/ Ft. Wayne, Ind.)

LIVEWIRE (NICKELODEON)

JAMES BROWN'S FUTURE SHOCK (WTBS)

THE ENTERTAINMENT PAGE (ATLANTA CABLE)

SYBIL (FROM THE PBS DOCUMENTARY "WHO DO YOU THINK YOU ARE")

